MAIN SPEAKER

SARAH HASSELBECK

Sarah Hasselbeck grew up in Connecticut and was an All-American Division I Field Hockey athlete at Boston College. She graduated summa cum laude with a BS degree in accounting and continued on to earn her CPA. She worked at PricewaterhouseCoopers in Boston for three years following college.

Sarah married her college sweetheart and moved to Green Bay, WI. Her husband, Matthew, was a ProBowl quarterback in the NFL for 18 years which invested them into many different teams and communities. Matthew played for the Packers, Seahawks, Titans and Colts.

In 2016, the Hasselbecks moved back to Boston so Matthew could be close to ESPN where he works as an NFL analyst and where they raise their three children, Annabelle, Mallory and Henry. Sarah happily spends most of her time cheering on her children on the lacrosse and football fields.

Sarah is an active board member of Medical Teams International based in Portland, OR. Her heart is dedicated to MTI's amazing work of daring to love like Jesus as they bring medical care to people devastated by crisis and disasters around the world. Sarah also serves as a family advisor to the Football Players Health Study at Harvard University. Matthew and Sarah work together on the board of Pro Athletes Outreach which is a pro to pro ministry serving the NFL, MLB and NHL. They also champion the work of International Justice Mission, the Danita's Children home in Ouanaminthe, Haiti and are members of the Well with Charity: water. In her free time Sarah loves to run, read and enjoy time with her family and friends.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

We hope you enjoyed the Anchor at Home! At this time, your host can lead your small group through these discussion questions.

1. What do you think it would feel like to actually walk on water? Have you ever felt a supernatural peace in your life?
2. Your life is not your own. How does that statement hit you?
3. Are there people in your life that you can see helped you with your "math problems" of faith and trust?
4. Have you ever experienced a time where you felt like you were "lucky" or you were "blessed" with something? Can you see it as a moment of GRACE from God? Has God ever shown you His power over things out of your power?
